OPINIONS VARY AS TO CONCRETE

As Result of Trip to Detroit, Some Rush County Men Are Now in Favor of Cement

FOR SOME NEW HIGHWAYS

Member of Party Returning Today
Says They Saw Good, Bad
And Indifferent Roads

The party of Rush county men, who made the trip yesterday to Detroit to inspect some cement roads, returned this morning. The party was pretty well worn out because of the long, hard trip, but all felt that the trip was worth while because of the increased knowledge they gained of concrete roads and of their construction.

The visit in Detroit was cut short four hours on account of a train wreck. A freight wreck ahead of the passenger train delayed the arrival there. The Rush county party went without breakfast yesterday morning until after ten o'clock and this naturally did not go well with some of them.

Arriving in Detroit the party was taken in automobiles over about seventy-five miles of cement road. One member of the party stated today that they saw good, bad and indifferent concrete highways. This members stated that the roads varied from ten to sixteen feet in width. It was stated that roads put in last year and the year before were exceptionally good, but that the roads which had been in service five or six years had begun to show signs of wear and were rough in many places.

No concrete streets in the city of Detroit were shown to the inspectors the trip being made in the country surrounding the city. One bad piece of road was found close to the city. It was stated that the people in that county should be satisfied with most any kind of road as the gravel roads resembled those of Illinois and people who have been there know that Illinois has poor gravel roads.

It appears certain that as a result of the trip, some of the concrete roads will be built in Rush county. Some of the viewers were favorably impressed and it would not be surprising if at least two of the three concrete road petitions would go through as prayed. It was impressed on the party that the concrete highways were a success where river washed gravel is used and care is taken in the construction. The concrete people admitted that as yet no way had been found to repair

Mayor Uses New Method on Omer
Adams, Suspending Sentence.

Omer Adams was given a fine of $25 and costs and 30 days in jail by Mayor Bebout this morning on an intoxication charge. The fine and sentence were suspended, pending good behavior. Adams has served one sentence at the penal farm and the mayor stated that this seemed to have done no good, so he would try the suspended sentence. The total sentence amounts to sixty-five days. Adams yesterday paid a fine of one dollar and costs for assault and battery.

Wabash College Glee Club Proves To Be One Distinctly Different

There are college glee clubs—and then there are college glee clubs, but the Wabash College glee club of Crawfordsville, Ind., that blooms perennially, is ever popular in Rushville as was attested at the concert of the club at the St. Paul's M. E. church Friday night under the auspices of the Queen Esther.

The many features of the club's program held the audience for two solid hours, with scarcely a moment's relaxation. Demands for repeated encores revealed the pleasure of the crowd. One number was no more than given until the college boys bounded out on the platform with something new and refreshing.

The college orchestra of eight pieces pleased as seldom any other college musical organization ever did here. The speciality numbers of individual members of the club and the ensemble numbers were distinctively collegiate.

Out of the ordinary high points on the program were given by Marsh Jones and George McAlevy, both Crawfordsville boys, and Joe McKown, who was immensely popular with his xylophone solos. McAlevy, with his engaging smile and sunny disposition, won the hearts of the people immediately and he had to respond twice after his first song, each time singing something that seemed to please a little better than the last one.

Jones was equally as popular with his special song numbers. Jones' droll manner stood him in good stead. His expressive way of producing each number was entirely

LOOK FOR MOTOR LAW VIOLATORS ONLY EIGHTEEN UNABLE TO PASS

Police Sound Warning to Motorists
That They Had Better Read
up on The Statutes

WILL BE LENIENT AT FIRST

About The Third Time an Offender
Will be Allowed to Explain It
to The Mayor

Starting Monday the police will inaugurate a campaign for better traffic conditions, especially in the business district. It is the intention to see that the motor and other traffic laws are obeyed and in order that everyone will understand what the police desire Chief Yakey has made a list of the laws and instructions to be followed.

The police will be easy at first. The violator of any of the traffic and automobile laws will be instructed as to the right way the first time. For a second offense the offender will be given an opportunity to explain why he did not follow the instructions and for a third offense the offender will be given a chance to explain to the mayor.

The orders of the chief of police state that all tail lights must be lighted and arranged so that the light hits the number plates. The front lights of automobiles must be lighted at night in the resident district, but this will not be followed rigidly in the business district. The law provides that all lights must be lighted within one-half hour after sundown.

Chief Yakey points out that the traffic law provides that all machines must be parked on the right side of the street. For instance a machine headed north in Main street could only be parked on the east side of the street in order to comply with the law. The police will see that the machines are parked at an angle of 45 degrees. In case the owners of machines do not know how to do this the police will show them. It is also desired that the machine be placed as closely together as possible.

In following out these parking regulations the police believe that as soon as the public becomes educated it will be an easy matter to take care of the traffic when summer arrives.

Chief Yakey also called attention to the number plates. Many of the plates are so dirty that the number cannot be seen. The law provides that these number plates must be kept clean and the police say one warning should be sufficient.

Chief Yakey also stated that all automobile owners were aware of the law regarding speed, but advised those that were ignorant of this law to read up and then follow it.

FOUL MURDER IS RUMORED; FIREMAN'S CAT IS FOUND DEAD.

The fire department's pet cat, the champion "mouser" of the city, is dead. The cat was found dead in the alley this morning. Basil Seward and the rest of the fire department claim the cat was poisoned, but before yesterday the cat killed a total of forty-two mice and one or two rats almost as large as the cat itself. Not content with this the cat continued to work at the job yesterday and then last night cashed in.

DEATH IS RESULT OF AN ACCIDENT

W. O. Henley, Who Fell From
Street Car in Indianapolis
March 20, Dies From Injuries

BODY TO BE BROUGHT HERE

W. O. Henley, a former resident of this city, died last night at his home in Indianapolis, following an accident in which his arm was amputated. On March 20 Mr. Henley slipped and fell under the wheels of a street car as he attempted to alight from the car and it was found necessary to amputate his arm. Complications arose and his death had been expected for the past few days, although it came as a surprise to his friends and relatives in this city.

Mr. Henly was formerly employed at the Arbuckle foundry. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and Odd Fellows lodges of this city. He is survived by the widow. The remains will be brought here Sunday afternoon at 3:42 o'clock and taken to the home of his brother-in-law, James Smith in West Third street. The funeral will be in charge of both lodges and will be held at the Smith home Monday afternoon at two o'clock.

Yes, yes, this is a presidential year—but not yours, we fear.

VILLA'S CAPTURE NOT CONFIRMED

General Gavira Hears Bandit Leader Has Been Taken by American Forces Near Minaca

NEWS FROM CHIHUAHUA CITY

General Pershing Orders Villistas
Put to Rout Wednesday Pursued And Exterminated

BULLETIN.

(By United Press.)
El Paso, Texas, 1.—Unconfirmed rumors are current in Chihuahua City that the American forces captured Villa in Minaca yesterday.

General Gavira at Juarez who made the announcement this afternoon stated his information came from General Luis Gutierrez, commander of Chihuahua City.

Gutierrez reported the wires to Minaca interrupted and confirmation unobtainable.

By H. D. JACOBS

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
Field Headquarters American Army near Dublin, Mexico, Wire-
lessed to Columbus, N. M., April 1.
—The pursuit of Villa's scattered forces continues today in the mountains near the scene of Villa's route Wednesday.

Brigadier-General Pershing has ordered the small band pursued and exterminated.

News of Colonel Dodd's victory was received in the base camp yesterday with the wildest cheers from privates and officers alike.

(By United Press.)

Washington, April 1.—With Villa's personal command smashed by Colonel Dodd's swift cavalry troop, officials here momentarily expect news of his capture and the final breaking up of his command as an effective band.

Divested of his prestige, Villa will find much less support among the peon inhabitants if army officers who have served on the border understand the Mexican character.

News that some one of his followers had succumbed to the temptation for the $50,000 reward offered for his body dead or alive would not be surprising now that there is less probability of deadly vengeance being inflicted in case it failed.

Once Villa is taken or positive news that he is dead is received, the American troops will march out of Mexico, according to all reports, with the utmost good feeling of the de facto government.

MAKE THE GOODS TALK.

Every storekeeper knows that goods sell best when they are placed where people can see them.

Displayed goods talk for themselves.

When the manufacturer advertises in the newspaper he has created a receptive audience for his particular goods to talk to.

The storekeeper who shows the newspaper advertised goods in his window is getting quick results because interest in these brands has been aroused by the advertising.

Alert storekeepers are quick to co-operate with the manufacturer's newspaper advertising.

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient, to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

Hupmobile

What are you interested in when you go to buy an automobile? Is it 70 miles an hour over dead horse hill on high gear; 40 miles an hour from a standing start in ten seconds. A car with so many features that to read the advertisement of it seems more like reading a story in Arabian Nights than a present day creation. Or would you be more interested in how much comfort is built in. And that other item—Cost of maintenance, tire mileage, gasoline consumption, garage bills, these things that vitally effect the pocketbook, in which everyone is interested and about which so little is said.

Will they give me any tangible evidence that I will get the kind of service that I feel I have a right to expect? Proof of the pudding is chewing the bag. Give us a chance to show you what has been done by cars we represent, then draw your own conclusions.

Backache, headache,
dragging pains
Nothing relieved me until I took
Peruna

Thousands of the best women in the world are bearing the burden of backache, headache, dragging pains, a miserable half-dead, half-alive condition, produced by chronic internal derangements. Mrs. Joseph Lacelle, 124 Glenora Ave., Ottawa East, Ontario, Canada, is one of the fair women of America who has had her experience with this sort of a burden. Her experience is similar to the multitude of other women whose letters are recorded in the "Ills of Life." A copy of this free booklet ought to be in the hands of every housewife in the United States. Read what Mrs. Lacelle says:

"I suffered with backache, headache and dragging pains for over nine months, and nothing relieved me until I took Peruna. This medicine is by far better than any other medicine for these troubles. A few bottles relieved me of my miserable half-dead, half-alive condition. I am now in good health, have neither ache nor pain, nor have I had any for the past year. If every suffering woman would take Peruna, they would soon know its value and never be without it."

A Vacillating Policy.

International law is a maze of unintelligible phrases to most persons. In ordinary times the average citizen concerns himself but little in international questions. Unable to comprehend the rules under which diplomacy is conducted, in a crisis such as the present he is inclined to trust blindly in the administration, or embrace the first explanation, no matter how impossible.

We have seen the submarine situation stated nowhere so clearly as it was recently explained by senator Burton in his speech at Trenton. It is notable that Mr. Burton, who is an authority on international law, is the last of the Republican leaders to attack the administration's foreign policy. He has evidently felt that delicate situation caused by the war the President should be unhampered by criticism. But when the crisis came and we began floundering toward the welter of blood in Europe, Mr. Burton has spoken plainly on the dangers of a shift in diplomacy.
In a few sentences he showed why our present unenviable plight is due to President Wilson's vacillating foreign policy, and he explained this so clearly that anyone can understand it.

"The whole difficulty," said Mr.
Burton, "arose from the exercise of those two conspicuous talents of the present administration, the passion for interference in the affairs of other nations and the inability to keep away from both sides of the question."

"On the tenth of February, 1915,
the administration warned the German Government of the consequences of carrying out the policy foreshadowed in its admiralty proclamation in case it should result in destroying any merchant vessel of the United States or in causing the death of American citizens, and threatened to hold the German Government to strict accountability for any such act."

"A note from the Secretary of State on the 15th of May last limited the rule that lives of non-combatants of neutral states should not be put in jeopardy on Unarmed merchantmen. The word 'unarmed' is important."

"In the latter part of January, 1916, The State Department in a note to the various powers sought to induce the Allies to disarm their merchantmen and placed especial stress on the disadvantages of submarines in conflict with armed merchantmen, saying in substance that it would not be fair that the submarines should be compelled to expose themselves to destruction from such vessels and that merchantmen should not be permitted to carry armament at all, stating further that the United States government was seriously considering the announcement of the purpose to treat a merchant vessel carrying guns as an auxiliary cruiser because of the changed conditions in maritime warfare resulting from the introduction of the submarine and its defenseless character."

"After the publication of this note Germany and Austro-Hungary on about the 10th of February very promptly and adroitly announced that on and after March 1st they would regard all merchantmen carrying armament as warships and would exercise the right to destroy them without warning."

"What did the President do then?
He said, 'No, for such a course would involve the loss of life of American Citizens, and American citizens have the right to travel on merchantships armed for defense.'"

"Thus we attempted to persuade England and France to give up a right which they claimed under international law, but would not ask American citizens to yield a right which we alleged belonged to them under the same law."

"In other words, we took the position that England and France had no right to arm their merchantmen, for thus they became warships, while, on the other hand, only a few weeks later we maintained that al-

VERDUN!

Will the War Reach Its Climax There?

"The most terrible battle in the world's history rages" around the French town against which the Germans have put forth their greatest effort since the war commenced. Will history repeat itself and Verdun again fall into German hands?

With leading German authorities claiming a triumphant victory and asserting that "Germany can not be beaten and nothing now remains but for the Allies to seek an arrangement with her," and the French Minister of Finance declaring "that we have reached the decisive hour, and can say without exaggeration, without allusion and without even optimism that we now see the end of this horrible war," a careful consideration of both claims should be made.

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for April 1st, there is a searching article that enables the reader to get a very definite idea of what the siege of Verdun has accomplished up to date. The article is illustrated by a topographical sketch of the forts of Verdun and the various points which have been the scenes of great battles during the past several weeks.

Among other fine articles in this unusually interesting number of THE DIGEST are:

The Standard of Value and Quality

You Must Place Your Order Now If You Want "Immediate Delivery"

Once again, we must urge you to act quickly in placing your order for a Paige Fairfield seven passenger "Six-46."

Don't delay. Don't put the matter off one day longer than is absolutely necessary if you would avoid disappointment later on.

Already the factory is flooded with orders for this wonderfully popular model.

Despite the fact that our manufacturing facilities have been tripled, we are facing an immediate shortage of Fairfields, and the spring retail season is only a few weeks off.

Just stop for a minute and consider the significance of the statement when we tell you that, so far in 1916, we have marketed more seven passenger cars than any other manufacturer in our price class.

Also, ponder over the fact that during March we shipped 25 solid train loads of the Fairfield model exclusively.

Last year, you will remember, there was a long Paige "waiting list."

Hundreds of people delayed their purchases until the last minute—and were then compelled to accept sixty and ninety days delivery—or compromise on a "second best."

So, be fair to yourself. Protect your own good interests. Go to the Paige dealer—place a cash deposit in his hands—and make sure that you will receive the car of your choice.

It is by no means our purpose to "stampede" motor car buyers into early or ill-advised purchases, but we know that a shortage is coming and offer this information in a sincerely helpful spirit.

And now let us say a word about the car itself.

First and foremost, we want to remind you that the Paige Fairfield "Six-46" is a tried and proven success.

When you buy a Paige "Six-46" today, you are buying a car which has passed the experimental stage. You are buying a car of known quality—known ability.

In a word, the "Six-46" is an eminently safe automobile investment.

It is a good car—not merely because we say so—but because its owners have conclusively established this goodness in the gruelling tests of more than a year's actual road work.

Here, then, is one substantial reason for the overwhelming demand which the "Six-46" enjoys. And there is another—a basic reason which has made this record possible.

Time and time again, we have stated our policy of scrupulously avoiding any expression in Paige advertising which might savor of exaggeration or misrepresentation. We make an honest product and we propose to sell it in an honest way.

But, facts are facts, and we boldly and fearlessly claim that the Paige Fairfield "Six-46" represents more actual dollar-for-dollar value than any other motor car on the market.

If this appears to be a broad statement we invite you to check us up by inspecting the car, riding in it, and conducting any comparative investigation which you may care to make.

Understand, we do not claim to make the only good motor car, nor do we ask you to believe that our Fairfield is the best American make.

But we do most emphatically insist that the "Six-46" offers a greater value for its price—$1295—than any other automobile produced in this country or abroad.

Furthermore, you will heartily agree with us if you will permit the Paige Dealer to give you one thorough demonstration—just one.

But, please don't forget—you must act quickly. Get your order in now—before it is too late.

AUDITOR OF STATE RETURNS TO SCHOOL

But it is the Place Where he Learned His "A. B. C.'s" and Last Day at That.

OTHER OFFICIALS PRESENT

(By United Press.)

Newcastle, Ind., April 1.—Never in the memory of the oldest inhabitant of Jefferson township, Henry county, did the last day of school in the old Hale school have such a notable gathering as yesterday. It was all in honor of Dale Crittenger, auditor of state, who was invited to return to the school, where he learned his A. B. C.'s.

With Crittenger were invited

Governor Samuel M. Raiston, Charles A. Greathouse, state superintendent of public instruction and a half dozen county superintendents. The little kids and big kids gasped with wonder and amazement when the notables walked in.

County Superintendent H. F. Roberts of Henry county, who conceived the idea of having a big round up of the district in honor of the auditor, provided a big tent to hold the crowd. The program was given in the tent. Little girls and boys spoke their pieces and sang their songs while Dale, Sam and Charlie looked on and applauded. Later it came the turn for the school children to cheer when their visitors made a few remarks.

COURT RULING FAVORS JITNEYS

Kokomo Judge Holds City Ordinance Discriminates Between Them and Taxicabs.

DECIDED FOR THE MAJORITY

Said Railway Company Was Back of Suit—Case Continued Indefinitely by Him.

(By United Press.)

Kokomo, Ind., April 1.—The jitney bus has found a friend in Judge Byers of city court who recently gave an opinion which included the following points:

Ninety per cent of Kokomo people favor the jitney bus. I am elected by popular vote, and it is my duty to decide as the majority wish.

The ordinance which discriminates between jitneys and taxis is clearly class legislation and unconstitutional.

The prosecution of the defendant (a jitney) clearly was instigated by the Indiana Railway and Light Company as one of the officials of that company signed the affidavit.

After making the above points the court cautioned the jitneys that they must operate for 5 cent fares and observed that transportation facilities in Kokomo are inadequate. The court then continued the jitney's case indefinitely, intimating that if pressed for a verdict he would clear the defendant and declare the ordinance unconstitutional.

GAVIRALS MAN OF 33D DEGREE POLITENESS.

(By United Press.)

Juarez, Mexico, April 1.—The politest man in Mexico has office room in a 'dobe ruin about five minutes' walk from the international bridge. He was unusually polite today.

He is commandant of the Carranzista army of Chihuahua. Name, Generale Gabriel (Etc.) Gavira. He talks English mostly with his shoulders and hands, but his motto is "we strive to please." To most questions his answer is:

"I dunno. I tak' all my—what you call him?—ordaire from my jefe primero." (First Chief.)

"Well what does Carranza say?"

"I have no instruction," Gavira grins. Then he tows you over to his war map and proceeds to tell you all about his men are going to capture Villa within twelve hours. All the time he exudes thirty-third degree politeness—and no news.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

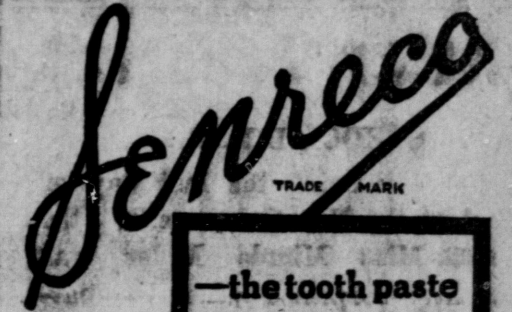

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

DUTCH PARLIAMENT CALLED IN SESSION

Will Meet Sunday to Consider Sinking of Tubantia—Other War-like Acts Reported

FURLOUGHS ARE CANCELLED

(By United Press.)
London, April 1.—Both houses of the Dutch parliament have been summoned by telegraph to meet in special session Sunday to consider the sinking of the Dutch liner Tubantia states a Copenhagen dispatch. The Dutch government has commandeered all railway material, the dispatch said, and the queen has cancelled all military furloughs. The situation is said to have grown more critical following a meeting of the highest officials of the army and navy who were in session all day yesterday. Because all direct cables between London and Holland have been put out of commission by a severe storm it is impossible to obtain early verification of the report. All dispatches regarding Dutch affairs have been coming from Copenhagen after having been telegraphed from The Hague.

CASTOR OIL NOW EASY TO TAKE

Doctor Makes New Remedy on Same Principle as Whipped Cream

The action of cream under the whipping process in making whipped cream encouraged a Cleveland physician to try his hand at making castor oil palatable.

Castor oil though recognized everywhere as the safest and surest laxative, has always been hard for physicians to administer without sickening adults or bribing children.

However, by whipping pure castor oil into a jelly and adding a delicious flavor of orange and lemon this doctor finally succeeded in overcoming all these objections.

Castor oil is the only medicine that should ever be taken for constipation or stomach disorders.

His new preparation is called CASTOR-JELL and is now on sale at all drug stores. It is highly recommended by physicians everywhere. On sale at Hargrove and Mullin's drug store, demonstration now going on. Castor Products Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

ing been telegraphed from The Hague.

The latest advices from The Hague said the German minister has assured the foreign office that no German submarine could have sunk the Tubantia.

SUB-COMMITTEE IS FOR BRANDEIS

Washington, April 1.—The senate sub-committee which investigated the fitness of Louis D. Brandeis for a place in the supreme court today voted to recommend his conformation. The vote was three to two.

While names were not given it was learned the unfavorable votes were given by Works and Cummins, Republicans and that the vote of Cummins was based on a different view left adverse to Brandeis than that held by Works.

The report will go to the senate judiciary committee Monday. There the sub-committee is expected to make a fight to keep the recommendation delayed or indefinitely postponed.

English and Other Food Supplies Reach Germany Despite Blockade of Allies.

ALWAYS SOMETHING NEW

Crisis For This Winter is Past and There Can be no Critical Shortage Now.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.) Berlin, April 1.—So many unexpected supplies reach Berlin that a statement of Germany's food situation today is difficult.

So many different kinds of food stuffs are on the market today that one wonders whether the English blockade has gone out of business or whether Turkey and Bulgaria are yielding up their stores for Germany.

Whatever the cause, the result is apparent. Germany has more varieties of food on the market today and larger supplies than at any time during the winter. A good deal of food slips by the blockade.

For this reason it may safely be stated that the crisis in the food situation for this winter is passed. Spring and Summer with their garden vegetables and supplies will prevent any critical shortage then, unless it be in meats.

For several days there have been rumors that there would soon be four meatless days a week, but this was officially denied by the LOKAL ANZEIGER. The butter situation still is acute but the authorities are issuing cards so there will be no need for the thousands to wait hours in butter lines on the three days a week when that product is sold.

During the last week I have visited all the big markets and grocery stores. These visits brought two surprises. First, the daily increase in food prices; second, the great quantities of French, English, Spanish and Norwegian food stuffs on the market.

Food is increasing by leaps and bounds in price. For instance, I priced cocoa Saturday. The best Dutch brand was 1.85 marks per half pound can. On Monday it was 1.90, on Wednesday, 2 marks.

I priced oatmeal, too. A small package a week ago was 55 pfennigs. Today the same amount was 85 pfennig and the best quality of oatmeal could not be purchased in most stores.

I went into several shops to get sardines. "How much?" I asked. "Here are Norwegian sardines at 55, 65, 75, 85 pfennig a can. But here are some French sardines, the best on the market, at 2.40 for a large can."

"What," I said in astonishment, "French sardines coming in?" "Oh, yes, we have quite a large supply. We get a great deal of foreign goods," said the grocer.

"Here are cans of Italian tomato soup and boxes of Italian spaghetti. We have English salmon, too," he added with pride and a laugh and a wink for the "English blockade."

Afterwards I went to other markets and saw great quantities of canned goods bearing French and English trade marks.

During the last few weeks there have been great quantities of oranges displayed in the markets. Most of these came from Spain. They slipped by the blockade too.

Dates, figs and nuts are coming in in substantial quantities, mostly from Turkey.

Last Saturday from "somewhere" came large shipments of pineapples.

That's the food story day in and day out. Always something new and always dearer.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Rushville Natural Gas company will be held in their office in Rushville, Ind., on Monday, April 24, 1916 at 2 p. m., for the election of Six (6) Directors to serve for one year from that date; and for such other business as may properly come before them at that time.

FIRST OF AIR CRAFT READY

"Dn-1," a Navy Dirigible, is Being Prepared For its Trial Flights by Government.

WEIGHT OF 7,000 POUNDS

Is Built to Float on Water and is Propelled by an Eight Cylinder Gasoline Engine.

(By United Press.)

Pensacola, Fla., April 1.—The Dn-1, first of the United States Navy's fleet of dirigible airships, was delivered to the government by the Connecticut Aircraft company and made ready for its initial flight under the direction of Pilot Lieutenant-Commander McCrary at the naval aeronautic station here today.

Commander McCrary recently returned from his naval business journey to London and supervised the completion of the Dn-1 at New Haven, Conn., where the big envelope was assembled. Naval authorities predict that the Dn-1 is the first of a monster fleet of aircraft which eventually will become one of the country's biggest defensive forces.

While this dirigible is a small non-rigid affair compared to the Zeppelins in use on the other side, the company is already working on plans for the construction at once of a larger ship of the rigid type and built on the lines of the latest models now in use in Europe. It will be used as a training ship for the instruction of pilots.

The dirigible is 175 feet long, 35 feet in diameter and 50 feet high. It weighs 5,000 pounds and has a lifting capacity of 2,000 pounds, making a total of 7,000 pounds. The envelope will contain 150,000 cubic feet of hydrogen and the craft will travel at a speed of thirty-five miles an hour.

The car is twenty feet long and five feet wide and will carry a crew of eight. It is built to float on the water. Motive power is provided by an eight cylinder gasoline engine, which operates two four-bladed propellers, one on each side of the car. The car will be steered by a big canvass rudder hung on the rear of the envelope, while horizontal planes, running on the equator of the envelope, will prevent a rolling motion.

In the front and back ends of the envelope, separated from the main compartment for the lifting hydrogen gas, are two compartments to direct the balloon up and down as it travels through the air. When it is proposed to ascend the rear compartments is pumped full of air, which makes that end much heavier than the front. The envelope points upward, and is driven by the propellers. When it is desired to descend the operation is reversed, the front of the machine being made heavier than the rear.

A system of pulleys through which the suspending ropes pass keeps the car itself at a horizontal position, no matter what the angle of inclination of the envelopes may be. A tube rises from the car which is for the purpose of driving air into the two compartments, which are known as ballonets.

The two propellers can be rotated by means of a handwheel and worn gear in a vertical plane, so that their line of thrust can be kept parallel to the horizontal axis of the envelope no matter what the angle of inclination of the car.

Every portion of the cloth went into the envelope of this balloon was examined with the aid of a strong light and wherever the warp or wool threads appeared to be separated or thinner than usual the parts were reinforced, although the cloth was absolutely new.

In the gondola a large margin of safety has been observed, while the balloon for its size is said to be more powerfully engined than any now in existence.

I still have a few Rush county farms, I can deliver this spring, also Rushville real estate. See me before you purchase. 248 N. Main. T. M. Offutt. 1711 different. The xylophone solos probably met with more prolonged and spontaneous applause than anything on the program and McKown was very liberal with them, all of which made the crowd feel good.

WABASH GLEE CLUB

Probably the best received of any of the glee club's offerings was the first one of the second part, a popular medley arranged by Marsh Jones, the glee club director, and Merle Maupin, of this city, who until a month ago was the accompanist with the club. The club appeared on the stage in rough and tumble order, each wearing a pair of white trousers and a scarlet sweater—the scarlet of old Wabash. They ran the scale of the popular melodies of the time.

A couple of songs that had lots of melody, when sung by the club, were "DeCoppah Moon" and "Rock-in' Time." One that was unusually good was "But—They Didn't." It went big and called for an encore, just as everything on the long program did. The concert closed with the college song, "Old Wabash," that exceptionally tuneful, one of the kind that you hum the chorus "as you leave." The club had sounded the last note of the chorus when McAlevy, wearing white trousers and a scarlet sweater, darted down from the back of the church and called for "the old series." The club responded with "Yea Wabash," "The Railroad" and "Skyrocket" yells.

T. F. Veach, the manager of the club, announced at the opening of the concert some changes in the printed program. He expressed the profound regret of the club because the services of Merle Maupin of this city as accompanist of the club had been lost, which made necessary the omission of two numbers by him. Mr. Maupin quit school about a month ago and has a position playing at the Geiger tea room in Indianapolis.

The Queen Esthers' cleared $30.10 on the concert. The club went from here to Cambridge City where they will give a concert and spend Sunday.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Elbert Morrison of Shelby county, who died yesterday morning at her home there. She visited here frequently, being the aunt of Bert Orme.

successfully a concrete street or highway and this is considered the greatest drawback to the building of this kind of highways. As far as can be learned the local party was about equally divided as to whether the roads here should be built of cement.

SHERIFF A JOKER

Sheriff Cavitt was the practical joker in the court house today. He suddenly grew very liberal and passed candy to the county officials and their assistants. Some took a large assortment, much to their sorrow, and others, remembering it was All Fools Day, passed it by.

In the matter of preparedness we suggest, again, that proper consideration be given to better roads.

Everybody that Does Anything

Has a reason for doing it. I found out during our opening why so many buggy customers bought their buggies of me and one of the reasons was, they could not find what they were looking for, any other place. This was a common expression among the many customers at our opening, "Nobody seems to have a STOCK OF BUGGIES," but when they saw the fine display on our sample floor and found exactly what they wanted it was no trouble to close a deal. We had a nice business and still have on hands a complete line of buggies, and everybody that is thinking of buying a buggy this spring will find what they are looking for on our sample floor.

You don't have to buy what the other fellow has carried over; you can find just what you want if you will come to the right place. Try this plan ONCE, insist on getting what you want in the vehicle line.

OPINIONS VARY AS TO CONCRETE

As Result of Trip to Detroit, Some Rush County Men Are Now in Favor of Cement

FOR SOME NEW HIGHWAYS

Member of Party Returning Today
Says They Saw Good, Bad
And Indifferent Roads

The party of Rush county men, who made the trip yesterday to Detroit to inspect some cement roads, returned this morning. The party was pretty well worn out because of the long, hard trip, but all felt that the trip was worth while because of the increased knowledge they gained of concrete roads and of their construction.

The visit in Detroit was cut short four hours on account of a train wreck. A freight wreck ahead of the passenger train delayed the arrival there. The Rush county party went without breakfast yesterday morning until after ten o'clock and this naturally did not go well with some of them.

Arriving in Detroit the party was taken in automobiles over about seventy-five miles of cement road. One member of the party stated today that they saw good, bad and indifferent concrete highways. This members stated that the roads varied from ten to sixteen feet in width. It was stated that roads put in last year and the year before were exceptionally good, but that the roads which had been in service five or six years had begun to show signs of wear and were rough in many places.

No concrete streets in the city of Detroit were shown to the inspectors the trip being made in the country surrounding the city. One bad piece of road was found close to the city. It was stated that the people in that county should be satisfied with most any kind of road as the gravel roads resembled those of Illinois and people who have been there know that Illinois has poor gravel roads.

It appears certain that as a result of the trip, some of the concrete roads will be built in Rush county. Some of the viewers were favorably impressed and it would not be surprising if at least two of the three concrete road petitions would go through as prayed. It was impressed on the party that the concrete highways were a success where river washed gravel is used and care is taken in the construction. The concrete people admitted that as yet no way had been found to repair

Omer Adams was given a fine of $25 and costs and 30 days in jail by Mayor Bebout this morning on an intoxication charge. The fine and sentence were suspended, pending good behavior. Adams yesterday paid a fine of one dollar and costs for assault and battery.

LOOK FOR MOTOR ONLY EIGHTEEN LAW VIOLATORS UNABLE TO PASS

Police Sound Warning to Motorists
That They Had Better Read
up on The Statutes

WILL BE LENIENT AT FIRST

About The Third Time an Offender
Will be Allowed to Explain it
to The Mayor

Starting Monday the police will inaugurate a campaign for better traffic conditions, especially in the business district. It is the intention to see that the motor and other traffic laws are obeyed and in order that everyone will understand what the police desire Chief Yakey has made a list of the laws and instructions to be followed.

The police will be easy at first. The violator of any of the traffic and automobile laws will be instructed as to the right way the first time. For a second offense the offender will be given an opportunity to explain why he did not follow the instructions and for a third offense the offender will be given a chance to explain to the mayor.

The orders of the chief of police state that all tail lights must be lighted and arranged so that the light hits the number plates. The front lights of automobiles must be lighted at night in the resident district, but this will not be followed rigidly in the business district. The law provides that all lights must be lighted within one-half hour after sundown.

Chief Yakey points out that the traffic law provides that all machines must be parked on the right side of the street. For instance a machine headed north in Main street could only be parked on the east side of the street in order to comply with the law. The police will see that the machines are parked at an angle of 45 degrees. In case the owners of machines do not know how to do this the police will show them. It is also desired that the machine be placed as closely together as possible.

In following out these parking regulations the police believe that as soon as the public becomes educated it will be an easy matter to take care of the traffic when summer arrives.

Chief Yakey also called attention to the number plates. Many of the plates are so dirty that the number cannot be seen. The law provides that these number plates must be kept clean and the police say one warning should be sufficient.

Chief Yakey also stated that all automobile owners were aware of the law regarding speed, but advised those that were ignorant of this law to read up and then follow it.

FOUL MURDER. IS RUMORED; FIREMAN'S CAT IS FOUND DEAD.

The fire department's pet cat, the champion "mouser" of the city, is dead. The cat was found dead in the alley this morning. Basil Seward and the rest of the fire department claim the cat was poisoned, but there are others who claim the cat was overworked. Day before yesterday the cat killed a total of forty-two mice and one or two rats almost as large as the cat itself. Not content with this the cat continued to work at the job yesterday and then last night cashed in.

DEATH IS RESULT OF AN ACCIDENT

W. O. Henley, Who Fell From
Street Car in Indianapolis
March 20, Dies From Injuries

BODY TO BE BROUGHT HERE

W. O. Henley, a former resident of this city, died last night at his home in Indianapolis, following an accident in which his arm was amputated. On March, 20 Mr. Henley slipped and fell under the wheels of a street car as he attempted to alight from the car and it was found necessary to amputate his arm. Complications arose and his death had been expected for the past few days, although it came as a surprise to his friends and relatives in this city.

Mr. Henly was formerly employed at the Arbuckle foundry. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and Odd Fellows lodges of this city. He is survived by the widow. The remains will be brought here Sunday afternoon at 3:42 o'clock and taken to the home of his brother-in-law, James Smith in West Third street. The funeral will be in charge of both lodges and will be held at the Smith home Monday afternoon at two o'clock.

Yes, yes, this is a presidential year—but not yours, we fear.

NEWS FROM CHIHUAHUA CITY

General Pershing Orders Villistas
Put to Rout Wednesday Pursued
And Exterminated

BULLETIN.

El Paso, Texas, 1.—Unconfirmed rumors are current in Chihuahua City that the American forces captured Villa in Minaca yesterday.

General Gavira at Juarez who made the announcement this afternoon stated his information came from General Luis Gutierrez, commandant of Chihuahua City.

Gutierrez reported the wires to Minaca interrupted and confirmation unobtainable.

Field Headquarters American Army near Dublin, Mexico, Wire-
lessed to Columbus, N. M., April 1.
—The pursuit of Villa's scattered forces continues today in the mountains near the scene of Villa's route Wednesday.

Brigadier-General Pershing has ordered the small band pursued and exterminated.

News of Colonel Dodd's victory was received in the base camp yesterday with the wildest cheers from privates and officers alike.

(By United Press.)

Washington, April 1.—With Villa's personal command smashed by Colonel Dodd's swift cavalry troop, officials here momentarily expect news of his capture and the final breaking up of his command as an effective band.

Divested of his prestige, Villa will find much less support among the peon inhabitants if army officers who have served on the border understand the Mexican character.

News that some one of his followers had succumbed to the temptation for the $50,000 reward offered for his body dead or alive would not be surprising now that there is less probability of deadly vengeance being inflicted in case it failed.

Once Villa is taken or positive news that he is dead is received, the American troops will march out of Mexico, according to all reports, with the utmost good feeling of the de facto government.

MAKE THE GOODS TALK.

Every storekeeper knows that goods sell best when they are placed where people can see them.

Displayed goods talk for themselves.

When the manufacturer advertises in the newspaper he has created a receptive audience for his particular goods to talk to.

The storekeeper who shows the newspaper advertised goods in his window is getting quick results because interest in these brands has been aroused by the advertising.

Alert storekeepers are quick to co-operate with the manufacturer's newspaper advertising.

Wabash College Glee Club Proves To Be One Distinctly Different

There are college glee clubs—and then there are college glee clubs, but the Wabash College glee club of Crawfordsville, Ind., that blooms perennially, is ever popular in Rushville as was attested at the concert of the club at the St. Paul's M. E. church Friday night under the auspices of the Queen Esther.

The many features of the club's program held the audience for two solid hours, with scarcely a moment's relaxation. Demands for repeated encores revealed the pleasure of the crowd. One number was no more than given until the college boys bounded out on the platform with something new and refreshing.

The college orchestra of eight pieces pleased as seldom any other college musical organization ever did here. The specialty numbers of individual members of the club and the ensemble numbers were distinctively collegiate.

Out of the ordinary high points on the program were given by Marsh Jones and George McAlevy, both Crawfordsville boys, and Joe McKown, who was immensely popular with his xylophone solos. McAlevy, with his engaging smile and sunny disposition, won the hearts of the people immediately and he had to respond twice after his first song, each time singing something that seemed to please a little better than the last one.

Jones was equally as popular with his special song numbers. Jones' droll manner stood him in good stead. His expressive way of producing each number was entirely

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddied complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-checked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds, and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

Hupmobile

What are you interested in when you go to buy an automobile? Is it 70 miles an hour over dead horse hill on high gear; 40 miles an hour from a standing start in ten seconds. A car with so many features that to read the advertisement of it seems more like reading a story in Arabian Knights than a present day creation. Or would you be more interested in how much comfort is built in. And that other item—Cost of maintenance, tire mileage, gasoline consumption, garage bills, these things that vitally effect the pocketbook, in which everyone is interested and about which so little is said.

Will they give me any tangible evidence that I will get the kind of service that I feel I have a right to expect? Proof of the pudding is chewing the bag. Give us a chance to show you what has been done by cars, we represent, then draw your own conclusions.

Nothing relieved
me until I took
Peruna

Thousands of the best women in the world are bearing the burden of backache, headache, dragging pains, a miserable half-dead, half-alive condition, produced by chronic internal derangements. Mrs. Joseph Lacelle, 124 Glenora Ave., Ottawa East, Ontario, Canada, is one of the fair women of America who has had her experience with this sort of a burden. Her experience is similar to the multitude of other women whose letters are recorded in the "Ills of Life." A copy of this free booklet ought to be in the hands of every housewife in the United States. Read what Mrs. Lacelle says:

"I suffered with backache, headache and dragging pains for over nine months, and nothing relieved me until I took Peruna. This medicine is by far better than any other medicine for these troubles. A few bottles relieved me of my miserable half-dead, half-alive condition. I am now in good health, have neither ache nor pain, nor have I had any for the past year. If every suffering woman would take Peruna, they would soon know its value and never be without it."

A Vacillating Policy.

International law is a maze of unintelligible phrases to most persons. In ordinary times the average citizen concerns himself but little in international questions. Unable to comprehend the rules under which diplomacy is conducted, in a crisis such as the present he is inclined to trust blindly in the administration, or embrace the first explanation, no matter how impossible.

We have seen the submarine situation stated nowhere so clearly as it was recently explained by senator Burton in his speech at Trenton. It is notable that Mr. Burton, who is an authority on international law, is the last of the Republican leaders to attack the administration's foreign policy. He has evidently felt that delicate situation caused by the war the President should be unhampered by criticism. But when the crisis came and we began floundering toward the welter of blood in Europe, Mr. Burton has spoken plainly on the dangers of a shiftily diplomacy. In a few sentences he showed why our present unenviable plight is due to President Wilson's vacillating foreign policy, and he explained this so clearly that anyone can understand it.

"The whole difficulty," said Mr. Burton, "arose from the exercise of those two conspicuous talents of the present administration, the passion for interference in the affairs of other nations and the inability to keep away from both sides of the question."

On the tenth of February, 1915, the administration warned the German Government of the consequences of carrying out the policy foreshadowed in its admiralty proclamation in case it should result in destroying any merchant vessel of the United States or in causing the death of American citizens, and threatened to hold the German Government to strict accountability for any such act.

A note from the Secretary of State on the 15th of May last limited the rule that lives of non-combatants of neutral states should not be put in jeopardy on Unarmed merchantmen. The word "unarmed" is important.

In the latter part of January, 1916, The State Department in a note to the various powers sought to induce the Allies to disarm their merchantmen and placed especial stress on the disadvantages of submarines in conflict with armed merchantmen, saying in substance that it would not be fair that the submarines should be compelled to expose themselves to destruction from such vessels and that merchantmen should not be permitted to carry armament at all, stating further that the United States government was seriously considering the announcement of the purpose to treat a merchant vessel carrying guns as an auxiliary cruiser because of the changed conditions in maritime warfare resulting from the introduction of the submarine and its defenseless character.

After the publication of this note Germany and Austro-Hungary on about the 10th of February very promptly and adroitly announced that on and after March 1st they would regard all merchantmen carrying armament as warships and would exercise the right to destroy them without warning.

"What did the President do then?" He said, "No, for such a course would involve the loss of life of American citizens, and American citizens have the right to travel on merchantships armed for defense."

"Thus we attempted to persuade England and France to give up a right which they claimed under international law, but would not ask American citizens to yield a right which we alleged belonged to them under the same law."

"In other words, we took the position that England and France had no right to arm their merchantmen, for thus they became warships, while, on the other hand, only a few weeks later we maintained that al-

VERDUN!

Will the War Reach Its Climax There?

"The most terrible battle in the world's history rages" around the French town against which the Germans have put forth their greatest effort since the war commenced. Will history repeat itself and Verdun again fall into German hands?

With leading German authorities claiming a triumphant victory and asserting that "Germany can not be beaten and nothing now remains but for the Allies to seek an arrangement with her," and the French Minister of Finance declaring "that we have reached the decisive hour, and can say without exaggeration, without allusion and without even optimism that we now see the end of this horrible war," a careful consideration of both claims should be made.

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for April 1st, there is a searching article that enables the reader to get a very definite idea of what the siege of Verdun has accomplished up to date. The article is illustrated by a topographical sketch of the forts of Verdun and the various points which have been the scenes of great battles during the past several weeks.

Among other fine articles in this unusually interesting number of THE DIGEST are:

You Must Place Your Order Now If You Want "Immediate Delivery"

Once again, we must urge you to act quickly in placing your order for a Paige Fairfield seven passenger "Six-46."

Don't delay. Don't put the matter off one day longer than is absolutely necessary if you would avoid disappointment later on.

Already the factory is flooded with orders for this wonderfully popular model.

Despite the fact that our manufacturing facilities have been tripled, we are facing an immediate shortage of Fairfields, and the spring retail season is only a few weeks off.

Just stop for a minute and consider the significance of the statement when we tell you that, so far in 1916, we have marketed more seven passenger cars than any other manufacturer in our price class.

Also, ponder over the fact that during March we shipped 25 solid train loads of the Fairfield model exclusively.

Last year, you will remember, there was a long Paige "waiting list."

Hundreds of people delayed their purchases until the last minute—and were then compelled to accept sixty and ninety days delivery—or compromise on a "second best."

So, be fair to yourself. Protect your own good interests. Go to the Paige dealer—place a cash deposit in his hands—and make sure that you will receive the car of your choice.

It is by no means our purpose to "stampede" motor car buyers into early or ill-considered purchases, but we know that a shortage is coming and offer this information in a sincerely helpful spirit.

And now let us say a word about the car itself.

First and foremost, we want to remind you that the Paige Fairfield "Six-46" is a tried and proven success.

When you buy a Paige "Six-46" today, you are buying a car which has passed the experimental stage. You are buying a car of known quality—known ability.

In a word, the "Six-46" is an eminently safe automobile investment.

It is a good car—not merely because we say so—but because its owners have conclusively established this goodness in the grueling tests of more than a year's actual road work.

Here, then, is one substantial reason for the overwhelming demand which the "Six-46" enjoys. And there is another—a basic reason which has made this record possible.

Time and time again, we have stated our policy of scrupulously avoiding any expression in Paige advertising which might savor of exaggeration or misrepresentation. We make an honest product and we propose to sell it in an honest way.

But, facts are facts, and we boldly and fearlessly claim that the Paige Fairfield "Six-46" represents more actual dollar-for-dollar value than any other motor car on the market.

If this appears to be a broad statement we invite you to check us up by inspecting the car, riding in it, and conducting any comparative investigation which you may care to make.

Understand, we do not claim to make the only good motor car, nor do we ask you to believe that our Fairfield is the best American make.

But we do most emphatically insist that the "Six-46" offers a greater value for its price—$1295—than any other automobile produced in this country or abroad.

Furthermore, you will heartily agree with us if you will permit the Paige Dealer to give you one thorough demonstration—just one.

But, please don't forget—you must act quickly. Get your order in now—before it is too late.

AUDITOR OF STATE RETURNS TO SCHOOL

But it is the Place Where he Learned His "A. B. C.'s" and Last Day at That.

OTHER OFFICIALS PRESENT

(By United Press.)

Newcastle, Ind., April 1.—Never in the memory of the oldest inhabitant of Jefferson township, Henry county, did the last day of school in the old Hiale school have such a notable gathering as yesterday. It was all in honor of Dale Crittenden, auditor of state, who was invited to return to the school, where he learned his A. B. C.'s. With Crittenden were invited

Governor Samuel M. Raiston, Charles A. Greathouse, state superintendent of public instruction and a half dozen county superintendents. The little kids and big kids gasped with wonder and amazement when the notables walked in.

County Superintendent H. F. Roberts of Henry county, who conceived the idea of having a big round up of the district in honor of the auditor, provided a big tent to hold the crowd. The program was given in the tent. Little girls and boys spoke their pieces and sang their songs while Dale, Sam and Charlie looked on and applauded. Later it came the turn for the school children to cheer when their visitors made a few remarks.

COURT RULING FAVORS JITNEYS

Kokomo Judge Holds City Ordinance Discriminates Between Them and Taxicabs.

DECIDED FOR THE MAJORITY

Said Railway Company Was Back of Suit—Case Continued Indefinitely by Him.

(By United Press.)

Kokomo, Ind., April 1.—The jitney bus has found a friend in Judge Byers of city court who recently gave an opinion which included the following points:

Ninety per cent of Kokomo people favor the jitney bus. I am elected by popular vote, and it is my duty to decide as the majority wish.

The ordinance which discriminates between jitneys and taxis is clearly class legislation and unconstitutional.

The prosecution of the defendant (a jitney) clearly was instigated by the Indiana Railway and Light Company as one of the officials of that company signed the affidavit.

After making the above points the court cautioned the jitneys that they must operate for 5 cent fares and observed that transportation facilities in Kokomo are inadequate. The court then continued the jitney's case indefinitely, intimating that if pressed for a verdict he would clear the defendant and declare the ordinance unconstitutional.

GAVIRALS MAN OF 33D DEGREE POLITENESS.

(By United Press.)

Juarez, Mexico, April 1.—The politest man in Mexico has office room in a 'dobe ruin about five minutes' walk from the international bridge. He was unusually polite today.

He is commandant of the Carranzista army of Chihuahua. Name, General Gabriel (Etc.) Gavira. He talks English mostly with his shoulders and hands, but his motto is "we strive to please." To most questions his answer is:

"I dunno. I tak' all my—what you call him?—ordaire from my jefe primero." (First Chief.)

"Well what does Carranza say?" "I have no instruction." Gavira grins. Then he tows you over to his war map and proceeds to tell you all about his men are going to capture Villa within twelve hours. All the time he exudes thirty-third degree politeness—and no news.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards' produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

DUTCH PARLIAMENT CALLED IN SESSION
Will Meet Sunday to Consider Sinking of Tubantia—Other War-like Acts Reported

FURLOUGHS ARE CANCELLED
(By United Press.)
London, April 1.—Both houses of the Dutch parliament have been summoned by telegraph to meet in special session Sunday to consider the sinking of the Dutch liner Tubantia states a Copenhagen dispatch. The Dutch government has commandeered all railway material, the dispatch said, and the queen has cancelled all military furloughs. The situation is said to have grown more critical following a meeting of the highest officials of the army and navy who were in session all day yesterday. Because all direct cables between London and Holland have been put out of commission by a severe storm it is impossible to obtain early verification of the report. All dispatches regarding Dutch affairs have been coming from Copenhagen after having been telegraphed from The Hague.

Doctor Makes New Remedy on Same Principle as Whipped Cream
The action of cream under the whipping process in making whipped cream encouraged a Cleveland physician to try his hand at making castor oil palatable. Castor oil though recognized everywhere as the safest and surest laxative, has always been hard for physicians to administer without sickening adults or bribing children. However, by whipping pure castor oil into a jelly and adding a delicious flavor of orange and lemon this doctor finally succeeded in overcoming all these objections. Castor oil is the only medicine that should ever be taken for constipation or stomach disorders. His new preparation is called CASTOR-JELLY and is now on sale at all drug stores. It is highly recommended by physicians everywhere. On sale at Hargrove and Mullin's drug store, demonstration now going on. Castor Products Co., Cleveland, Ohio. (Advertisement)

SUB-COMMITTEE IS FOR BRANDEIS
Washington, April 1.—The senate sub-committee which investigated the fitness of Louis D. Brandeis for a place in the supreme court today voted to recommend his confirmation. The vote was three to two. While names were not given it was learned the unfavorable votes were given by Works and Cummins, Republicans and that the vote of Cummins was based on a different view left adverse to Brandeis than that held by Works. The report will go to the senate judiciary committee Monday. There the sub-committee is expected to make a fight to keep the recommendation delayed or indefinitely postponed.

English and Other Food Supplies Reach Germany Despite Blockade of Allies.

ALWAYS SOMETHING NEW

Crisis For This Winter is Past and There Can be no Critical Shortage Now.

(D. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Berlin, April 1.—So many unexpected supplies reach Berlin that a statement of Germany's food situation today is difficult.

So many different kinds of food stuffs are on the market today that one wonders whether the English blockade has gone out of business, or whether Turkey and Bulgaria are yielding up their stores for Germany.

Whatever the cause, the result is apparent. Germany has more varieties of food on the market today and larger supplies than at any time during the winter. A good deal of food slips by the blockade.

For this reason it may safely be stated that the crisis in the food situation for this winter is passed. Spring and Summer with their garden vegetables and supplies will prevent any critical shortage then, unless it be in meats.

For several days there have been rumors that there would soon be four meatless days a week, but this was officially denied by the LOCAL ANZEIGER. The latter situation did not mean that the difficulties in obtaining food so there will be no need for the thousands to wait hours in butter lines on the three days a week when that product is sold.

During the last week I have visited all the big markets and grocery stores. These visits brought two surprises. First, the daily increase in food prices; second, the great quantities of French, English, Spanish and Norwegian food stuffs on the market.

Food is increasing by leaps and bounds in price. For instance, I visited a grocery Saturday. The best Dutch brand was 1.85 marks per half pound can. On Monday it was 2.00, on Wednesday, 2 marks.

I visited a meat market. A small package a week ago was 55 pfennigs. Today the same amount was 55 pfennigs and the best quality of animal could not be purchased in most stores.

I went into several shops to get sardines. "How much?" I asked.

"There are Norwegian sardines at 55, 65, 75, 85 pfennig a can. But here are some French sardines, the best on the market, at 2.10 for a large can."

"What," I said, in astonishment, "French sardines coming in?"

"Oh, yes, we have quite a large supply. We get a great deal of foreign goods," said the grocer.

"There are cans of Italian tomato soup and boxes of Italian spaghetti. We have English salmon, too," he added with pride and a laugh and a wink for the "English blockade."

Afterwards I went to other markets and saw great quantities of canned goods bearing French and English trade marks.

During the last few weeks there have been great quantities of oranges displayed in the markets. Most of these came from Spain. They slipped by the blockade too.

Dat s. d. and nuts are coming in in substantial quantities, mostly from Turkey.

Last Saturday from "somewhere" came large shipments of pineapples.

That's the food story day in and day out. Always something new and always dearer.

FIRST OF AIR CRAFT READY

"D-1," a Navy Dirigible, is Being Prepared For its Trial Flights by Government.

WEIGHT OF 7,000 POUNDS

Is Built to Float on Water and is Propelled by an Eight Cylinder Gasoline Engine.

(By United Press.)

Pensacola, Fla., April 1.—The first of the United States Navy's fleet of dirigible airships, was delivered to the government by the Connecticut Airship company and made ready for its initial flight under the direction of Pilot Lieutenant-Commander McHenry at the naval aeronautic station here today.

Commander McHenry recently returned from his naval business journey to London and supervised the completion of the D-1 at New Haven, Conn., where the big envelope was assembled. Naval authorities predict that the D-1 is the first of a monster fleet of aircraft which eventually will become one of the country's biggest defensive forces.

While this dirigible is a small non-military affair compared to the Zeppelins in use on the other side, the company is already working on plans for the construction at once of a larger ship of the rigid type and back on the lines of the latest models now in use in Europe. It will be used as a training ship for the instruction of pilots.

The dirigible is 175 feet long, 35 feet in diameter and 50 feet high. It weighs 5,000 pounds and has a lifting capacity of 2,000 pounds, making a total of 7,000 pounds. The envelope will contain 150,000 cubic feet of hydrogen and the craft will travel at a speed of thirty-five miles an hour.

The car is twenty feet long and five feet wide and will carry a crew of eight. It is built to float on the water. Motive power is provided by an eight cylinder gasoline engine, which operates two four-bladed propellers, one on each side of the car. The car will be steered by a big canvas rudder hung on the rear of the envelope, while horizontal planes, running on the equator of the envelope, will prevent a rolling motion.

In the front and back ends of the envelope, separated from the main compartment for the lifting hydrogen gas, are two compartments to direct the balloon up and down as it travels through the air. When it is proposed to ascend the rear compartment is pumped full of air, which makes that end much heavier than the front. The envelope points upward and is driven by the propellers. When it is desired to descend the operation is reversed, the front of the machine being made heavier than the rear.

A system of pulleys through which the suspending ropes pass keeps the car itself at a horizontal position, no matter what the angle of inclination of the envelopes may be. A tube rises from the car which is for the purpose of driving air into the two compartments, which are known as balloons.

The two propellers can be rotated by means of a handwheel and worn gear in a vertical plane, so that their line of thrust can be kept parallel to the horizontal axis of the envelope no matter what the angle of inclination of the car.

Every portion of the cloth went into the envelope of this balloon was examined with the aid of a strong light and wherever the warp or wool threads appeared to be separated or thinner than usual the parts were reinforced, although the cloth was absolutely new.

In the globe a large margin of safety has been observed, while the balloon for its size is said to be more powerfully engined than any now in existence.

I still have a few Rush county farms. I can deliver this spring, also Nashville real estate. See me before you purchase. 218 N. Main. T. M. Offutt. 1711

Designs as shown by some firms are more or less freakish or fadish to attract the attention of the prospective customers with scarcely a thought of their wearing appearance or correctness in proportion. But then they are merely on paper and represent but a small loss if they don't take.

London, April 1.—Twenty-eight persons were killed and forty-four injured in last night's Zeppelin raid on England, the admiralty announced this afternoon. Arriving off the east coast at about 8 p. m. the airships divided into two squadrons, one moving eastward and the other taking a more southerly course.

A total of 74 bombs were dropped. One of the five Zeppelins participating was shot and fell off the mouth of the Thames. The crew surrendered and the airship sank.

SHERIFF A JOKER

Sheriff Cavitt was the practical joker in the court house today. He suddenly grew very liberal and passed candy to the county officials and their assistants. Some took a large assortment, much to their sorrow, and others, remembering it was All Fools Day, passed it by.

In the matter of preparedness we suggest, again, that proper consideration be given to better roads.

different. The xylophone solos probably met with more prolonged and spontaneous applause than anything on the program and McKown was very liberal with them, all of which made the crowd feel good.

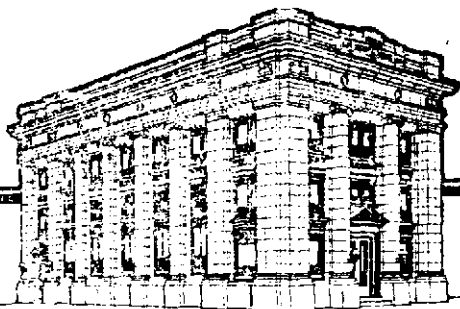

Probably the best received of any of the glee club's offerings was the first one of the second part, a popular melody arranged by Marsh Jones, the glee club director, and Merle Maupin, of this city, who until a month ago was the accompanist with the club. The club appeared on the stage in rough and tumble order, each wearing a pair of white trousers and a scarlet sweater—the scarlet of old Wabash. They ran the scale of the popular melodies of the time.

A couple of songs that had lots of melody, when sung by the club, were "DeCoppah Moon" and "Rock-in' Time." One that was unusually good was "But—They Didn't." It went big and called for an encore, just as everything on the long program did. The concert closed with the college song, "Old Wabash," that exceptionally timely, one of the kind that you hear the chorus "as you leave." The club had sounded the last note of the chorus when McKewy, wearing white trousers and a scarlet sweater, darted down from the back of the church and called for "the old series." The club responded with "Yea Wabash," "The Railroad" and "Skyscraper" yells.

T. P. Vesich, the manager of the club, announced at the opening of the concert some changes in the printed program. He expressed the profound regret of the club because the services of Merle Maupin of this city as accompanist of the club had been lost, which made necessary the omission of two numbers by him. Mr. Maupin quit school about a month ago and has a position playing at the Golden tea room in Indianapolis.

The Queen Esther's cleared $30.10 on the concert. The club went from here to Cambridge City where they will give a concert and spend Sunday.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Elbert Morrison of Shelby county, who died yesterday morning at her home there. She visited here frequently, being the aunt of Bert Orme.

Everybody that Does Anything

Has a reason for doing it. I found out during our opening why so many buggy customers bought their buggies of me and one of the reasons was, they could not find what they were looking for, any other place. This was a common expression among the many customers at our opening, "Nobody seems to have a STOCK OF BUGGIES," but when they saw the fine display on our sample floor and found exactly what they wanted it was no trouble to close a deal. We had a nice business and still have on hands a complete line of buggies, and everybody that is thinking of buying a buggy this spring will find what they are looking for on our sample floor.

You don't have to buy what the other fellow has carried over; you can find just what you want if you will come to the right place. Try this plan ONCE, insist on getting what you want in the vehicle line.
